What makes something you can't have always look so good

Why'd do something out of reach seem so fine

What makes you thrill me more than any girl I know

I guess it's just because you can't be mine

Why can't I be contented with what belongs to me

And be satisfied with what's already mine

What makes a stolen moment such a precious thing

I guess it's just because you can't be mine

What makes me always want a woman I can't have

Why the someone else's silver always shine

My patience rises every time you come around

And I guess it's just because you can't be mine

Why can't I be contented with what belongs to me

And be satisfied with what's already mine

What makes a stolen moment such a precious thing

I guess it's just because you can't be mine
