(Merle Haggard)

Everybody's had the blues sometimes
And everybody knows the tune
And everybody knows the way I'm feelin'
Cause everybody's had the blues.

A lonely, song someone is gone, a story old as time
Love, hate, or want and wait till misery fills your mind
But everybody knows the way I'm fellin'
'Cause everybody's had the blues.
