Now, I won't think about tomorrow
When the happy times are gone away
And good times can't last forever
But the good times are here today

And I won't talk about believin'
If you won't beg me to stay
I wanna live just for the moment
And everything is going my way

And I won't think about tomorrow
When the happy times are gone away
The good times can't last forever
But the good times are here today

I'm not gonna save any money
I'm gonna spend every dime I can
And I'll buy you everything with money can buy
While the good times are here at hand

And I won't think about tomorrow
When the happy times are gone away
Well, the good times can't last forever
But the good times are here today
