Good evening, this is Dee Joseph for WBIZ radio

This just in - police officials report that a six year old girl was found raped today

The girl's stepfather is the key suspect in the case

Details are still sketchy at this time

Now back to the Kid Capri radio show

How do you feel about it.. Kid Capri?

[Verse One]

Hang 'em high, let him suffer, before he die

Cause in my mind I see that little girl cry

She was abused, misused, and even sodomized

She didn't know - all of this was a surprise

So now she's scarred for life, nothin can change that Being treated like some dog by some maniac

What type of man would want to do that to a six year old out of all of these women that the world hold?

You coulda went to a nightclub and met a chick

Black or white, Puerto Rican, you coulda picked Bought her a drink, took her home, and maybe got some

But you'd rather rape a baby and you think it's fun?

Now you're goin to jail, death row I hope

Before the rope when you get there, your boots'll smoke

I got somethin, to say to ya before ya die..

.. hang 'em high

[Verse Two]

My name is Kid Capri I wanna say this to y'all

Any man that rapes a woman is not a man at all

Especially a little girl that don't know nothin about that rape, man you're a maniac

So now you're locked in a cell, what good are you now?

No friends, no freedom, and no style

Word to duke you're gettin stuck like a blister

Just for instance, that coulda been my sister or my moms, my girl or my daughter Lou

Be glad the cops got to you before I got to you It's a shame for a girl to be so scared that when she walk down the block, her life is dead Can't jog down the street, after dark Take a look at what happened, in Central Park
A girl is runnin, while some bum is bummin
The only thing he's thinkin about is cumin
He gets his rocks off, now he feels like a man Then he kills her, and steps off, but understand what goes around, comes right back around And when he's found, he's gonna get a beatdown
He tried to skip town, headed for the Northbound Got no money so he steals and gets shot down
But don't die, so now it's gonna get rougher
Before you execute him - LET ME SEE HIM SUFFER Give him the chair, shoot him down, let him die Better yet, huh, hang 'em high..

[news reporter]

This just in - police officials report that the suspect in the rape of a six year old girl has been apprehended, and has confessed to this outrageous crime
Let's hope they really hang this guy

[Kid Capri]

Kid Capri, Silver D and Money Mark - hang 'em high!
Out! {echoes as it fades}
