Well, I ain't got nobody, nobody cares for me
And I'm so sad and lonely, won't somebody come and take chance with me

I'll sing you sweet love songs honey, all of the time
You come and be the pretty mama of mine

And I ain't got nobody, nobody cares for me
Lord, lord

Yeah, I ain't got nobody, nobody cares for me
And I'm so sad and lonely, won't somebody come and
take chance with me

I'll sing you sweet love songs honey, all of the time
You come and be the pretty mama of mine

And I ain't got nobody, nobody cares for me
Oh, Lord
