Yeah, I'm a good loser born to be that way
This dog, he never had his day
Yeah, I'm a good loser so don't worry 'bout my pride
Me, don't look back, you can't see my hurt inside

There must be a sin I'm payin' for 'Cause I felt my share of heartaches long before
This same life runs in cycles, I can't say they're wrong
My luck's been running bad too long

But I'm a good loser born to be that way
This dog, he never had his day
Yeah, I'm a good loser so don't worry 'bout my pride
Me, don't look back, you can't see my hurt inside

There's no sign of changes coming soon
And I may never sing another tune
'Cause losin' you would probably be my biggest hurt today
But don't you let my feelin's make you wait

No, I'm a good loser born to be that way
This dog, he never had his day
Yeah, I'm a good loser so don't worry 'bout my pride
Lee, don't look back, you can't see my hurt inside
