We had a request the last time we were here we some requests to do some impersonations. And we haven't been doing 'em on our show But we promised we would do 'em the next time we were here in Philadelphia. And would ya'll like to see some some impersonations for a second or two. OK alright I'll tell you what we would but we don't know any And naw really we're gonna try to do a couple three for you We hope that you recognize 'em the first one goes like this right here This is one of my very favorite singers and if I don't sound like 'im I'm gonna be mad at me...
