I still love you
As I did in yesterday
Many years have gone by
Though it seems just like a day

It's no wonder that I love you
You've been so kind and true
There will never be another
It will always be just you

We've come along the way together
When you've proved your love is true
My life's been a pleasure
And it's all because of you

And to me you'll always be
Just as sweet as flowers in May
And I'll still love you
As I did in yesterday

I still love you
As I did in yesterday
Many years have gone by
Though it seems just like a day

It's no wonder that I love you
You've been so kind and true
There will never be another
It will always be just you

We've come along the way together
And you've proved your love is true
And my life's been a pleasure
All because of you

And to me you'll always be
Just as sweet as flowers in May
And I'll still love you
As I did in yesterday

And to me you'll always be
Just as sweet as flowers in May

And I'll still love you
As I did in yesterday
