Just old Rambling Bill, just old Rambling Bill
Some day I might get married and, baby, I might settle down

I ain't got no home, I'm here all alone
All the clothes I've got, I've got them on Just old Rambling Bill, just old Rambling Bill
Some day I might get married and, baby, I might settle
down

I've been all around from town to town
I've got some good things on my way around
Just old Rambling Bill, just old Rambling Bill
Some day I might get married and, baby, I might settle
down

Rock it, boys

I'm just like a piano player, carry nothing but my hat I play women where I find 'em and leave 'em where I played 'em at
Just old Rambling Bill, just old Rambling Bill
Some day I might get married and, baby, I might settle
down

Rocks is my pillow, sunshine keeps me warm Blue sky is my blanket and mother nature built my home
Just old Rambling Bill, just old Rambling Bill
Some day I might get married and, baby, I might settle
down
Wash everything I had down the street

I was hollerin' for mercy and it weren't no boats around Hey, I was hollerin' for mercy and it weren't no boats around Hey, that looks like people, I've gotta stay right here and drown

Hey, my house started shakin', started floatin' on down the stream Hey, my house started shakin', went on floatin' on down the stream

It was dark as midnight, people began to holler and scream
