

Throne Of Chaos "Game"

Visit "Game" on MotoLyrics.com

You want to get into that game
The secret game where bet is pain
Like playing dice with no numbers
Who dares will win, but still who cares...

There are no winners or winning
Only losers and losing

By mental penetration inside

You're like possessed by things above

They are with us, inside our minds
You want to hear them, feel them, call them
Who dares will win, but still who cares...

You've heard stories of it's strenght and might
It's so powerfull and right but only a very big lie
