I'm learning more about life and what it means to me with each day I live and each breath I breathe
This is my journey I hope you will be here with me when it ends There's so much about us that compliments the other and I'll be your baby but you can't be my mother
no, it has to end, yeah

Don't bleed for me
It's me in this skin
Don't bleed for me
Do not pay for my sins

I opened my eyes and saw a world of grey explored a little
it's not as black and white as they say Open your mind
you don't know everything

Don't bleed for me
It's me in this skin
Don't bleed for me
Do not pay for my sins
Don't breathe for me
Why am I condemned
Don't breathe for me
Can't you be content

I've made my decision for who I want to be You've got a different opinion and a mold to fit, but I'm not having it you're not the shaper
You aim with precision for what you want in me I've got a different conviction the mold you want to fit isn't legitimate You're not my maker
