They keep saying we're alone
The magic beings no longer be
We believe their words until
We get high enough to see

Dragon keeps circling the moon
The person in her world is me
If she knows she's being watched
She will disappear soon

Moondragon
Moondragon
Moondragon
Moondragon

Keeper of the golden moon
Her age old eyes will catch me soon
I'm on her side and wish no harm
Her life is free, her envied calm

Moondragon sees our world
Watches lunar craft come near
Visitors can come and go
She guards her moon without any fear

Moondragon
Moondragon
Moondragon
Moondragon
