"Mt. Andronica"

I'm climbing Andronica
It's taken two thousand days
The burden on my back
It never goes away
I trudge on step by step
The summit is in sight
Will I ever reach my goal
I'm approaching the height

And I must not fall off the other side
The path I walk is not so wide
Temptations call my name, to give it away
Catch my dreams in flight, I'm not afraid

Silver snow, great volcano
Bursting into the sky
Crystal palace meets the stars
Hear the blizzard cry
My journey's at an end
I travel on no more
I conquered Andronica
My spirit soars

And I must not fall off the other side
The path I walk is not so wide
Temptations call my name, to give it away
Catch my dreams in flight, I'm not afraid
