There's a bridge into space on the edge where demons often grow

Neotrantor lives there and his face means death to follow

In the vision of a bull, this reptile creature knows
King of his sword's horizon, twilight yet to show

Ride

Neotrantor

Back down, Ox Rider, with cloak made of solid stone Here's a chance to fly from worlds of silver crimson snow

I will suck the orgone from you, turn around and go
The Mantis lives beyond, I must find what he knows

Ride

Neotrantor

There's a bridge into space where he stands, the stone arch is the door

The battle rages on for three full moons or more Ox Rider calls on Sojourns Lucid Magic lore
Destroys the reptile, Neotrantor is no more

Ride

Neotrantor

Ride through the portal, wormhole transports ox and all
The barren plains of light bathed in tangerine dawn
Andronica looms up through clouds of silver haze
The Mantis lives there, wisdom must transcend this age
