Time machine

Take me when I've never been
When levitation rules the sky

Settle down

Feel the vortex close around
Keep your eye upon the dial

Flash of light

See half-built pyramids stand in the night
On waves of sound, the stone blocks fly

The Mu-Gods stand

On green lands not yet turned to sand
When prehistoric lore had not yet died

Ten thousand B.C.

Came in my time machine to see
Ten thousand B.C.
Came in my time machine to see

Noisy star

Comes across the sky from far
Son of man, you know you are

Seek to find

The key that fits the lock to free my mind
Orion's Belt calls out from far

Ten thousand B.C.

Came in my time machine to see
Ten thousand B.C.
Came in my time machine to see
Ten thousand B.C.
Came in my time machine to see
Came in my time machine
Ten thousand B.C.
Came in my time machine to see
Came in my time machine
Ten thousand B.C.
Came in my time machine to see
Came in my time machine

Ten thousand B.C.
Came in my time machine to see
Came in my time machine
