We are present.
We are assembled.
We're ready, so let's get started.
The first order to attend to
Is to get rid of who we outsmarted.
But to do this we'll have to poison
All the brothers and the sisters.
Make it quick, we're on deadline,
Or we'll upset the misses and the misters.

We signed up to get down.
So what's the deal with all this waiting around?
We lined up on the ground.
One year later that's how we were found, alright.

This meeting is adjourned.
Pick up your papers and your pencils.
This is a packet, look inside it.
There should be keys for your car rental.
If you listen with your ears,
You will find out something dirty.
And if you fail, you'll be unhappy.
I'm barely born; they're over 30.

We signed up to get down.
So what's the deal with all this waiting around?
We lined up on the ground.
One year later that's how we were found, alright.

They talk slow.
Repeating words that we already know.
We talk fast.
Steal from the future and not from the past.
They talk slow.
Repeating words that we already know.
We talk fast.
Steal from the future and not from the past, oh yeah.
