Born to fight, you are here warrior
Live this life protecting our land
You force against the evil invader
They want killing us

Assassins, thieves, they wait for the fight
To destroy all we have

Ripping, steal, burning our homes
Taking away all our lands

[Chorus:]
Fight to protect us
From this damnation
We don't want to change
Conquest is the end
Fight to protect us
From this damnation
We don't want to change
Conquest is the end

Fighting with our hands against the steel warrior
You can't win is an unfair battle
Blood of heroes of our people on the ground
They are dying for his land

Hundreds years of war will kill us
There's no salvation for our children
Our race will be exterminated
Evil invaders bring us the end

[Chorus]

Not the end, in the memory
Of our people, will be there
The history will lie
Cause will be write for the evil invaders
