They say it's all gone, it's just the beginning
They say it's a dawn, well it's just another morning Run through the hours, the days and the endless years Run for the shelter and hide, reborn and become strong and undone
They say there are so many ways you can live your life
But they will never learn, there are gazing eyes, they criticize
The way you have chosen, the things you have always done
Sometimes aren't righteous, sometimes aren't clear,
just keep going on without fear
Break the emotion - Run into the eye of the storm
Break the emotion - And you can feel the hellfire
Break the emotion - Desire for vengeance is rising
Break the emotion - You're dancing on the wire
Your fall is higher... If you don't break your emotion
They say you're wrong and they're right, but it's only illusion
They say give up without fight, it's their institution
The way you have chosen, the things you have always
done
Sometimes aren't righteous, sometimes aren't clear,
just keep going on without fear
Break the emotion - Run into the eye of the storm
Break the emotion - And you can feel the hellfire
Break the emotion - Desire for vengeance is rising
Break the emotion - You're dancing on the wire
Your fall is higher... If you don't break your emotion
