I guess you give about as good as you get in these troubled times
You seem to forget who you love or who you can trust
But I know I just got to let you go and you won't ever let it show
I just made promises right from the start
Lies in my secrets, whispered in the dark
Should have known, I didn't have a chance that way
I don't wanna let ya go, you had enough and you won't take anymore

Caught between the lies
Don't want to lose ya baby
Now it's lonely nights

Caught between the lies
Don't want to lose ya girl

Tried to talk it out, my last mistake
Behind the changing smile, it's harder to fake
Had your mind made up, hangin' 'round this town
I know I just got to let you go
Ya had enough you won't take anymore

Caught between the lies
Don't want to lose ya baby
Now it's lonely nights
Caught between the lies
Don't want to lose ya girl
It's gonna be lonely
Guess you had enough
