She made her last mistake
She had a smile that you just can't fake
Not with me girl
She got caught in the dark
She tried to cover up right from the start
Can't you see girl

Guess it's time, to teach a lesson
Gonna pack, pack my Smith and Wesson

Seems like I'm wastin' all of my time
I tried to forgive and forget you
Collect on a murder debt that's on my mind
She got it comin'

You tried to play it smart
But you ended up fallin' apart
Watch you bleed girl
You thought you had your way
You know that every dog has its day
It's your turn now

Guess it's time, change directions
Gonna try, leave your memory behind

Seems like I'm wastin' all of my time
I tried to forgive and forget you

Collect on a murder debt that's on my mind
Seems like every single time I've tried
Tried to forgive and forget you
Can't let you get away with all these lies
No way

She made her last mistake
She had a smile that you just can't fake
Not with me girl
She got caught in the dark
She tried to cover up right from the start
Can't you see

Seems like I'm wastin' all of my time

I tried to forgive and forget you
Collect on a murder debt that's on my mind
Seems like every single time I've tried
Tried to forgive and forget you
Can't let you get away with all these lies

Guess it's time to teach a lesson
I'm gonna pack my Smith and Wesson
