In the heat of the city, in the dead of the night
Playin' with my life, it felt so right Lost souls in these empty nights, fill the streets like traffic lights
Lookin' for a better way to get through another day

Losin' friends by the minute
Didn't care cause there weren't in it
Knew I was headin' for a fall
Takin' a chance of losin' it all

It was - good till the last drop, I'd walk the wire
When it set my heart pumpin' fire, good till the last drop
Never wanna stop cause it was good till the last drop I'd wake up in another daze, hopin' money's gonna come my way
Knew it was wrong, but it felt so right, I couldn't face the fact
I'd be the one to stab you in the back
Never could get my fill, it was always, shoot to kill

Using friends by the minute
Who dares to play if you can't win it
Knew I was headin' for a fall
Takin' a chance of losin' it all

Good till the last drop, I'd walk the wire
When it set my heart pumpin' fire, good till the last
drop
Never wanna stop cause it was good till the last drop
