I've waited so long for what was mine
I never tried to hide my feelings inside
Then you came along, it was alright
How was I to know, you'd try to ruin my life
But theres something that makes me stay
Why don't you give it up and try to find your way
There's more to life than lies it you want it
You got to pay the price

Baby you could change the way that you are
I never thought you'd let it get so far

You're a hard kind of woman when it comes to love
Hard kind of woman just has to be above
Hard kind of woman, oh yeah, hard kind of woman

You're trying to do what others did before

Take what you need and crying out for more
You stare with a strangers eyes
Girl, I don't think your really worth the while

Baby you could change the way that you are
I never thought you'd let it get so far

You're a hard kind of woman when it comes to love
Hard kind of woman just has to be above
Hard kind of woman, oh yeah, hard kind of woman

Baby you could change the way that you are
I never thought you'd let it get so far

You're a hard kind of woman when it comes to love
Hard kind of woman just has to be above
Hard kind of woman, oh yeah, hard kind of woman
