Sweet innocence she stole my heart with a hunger in her eyes
Little babe I'm yours no more, can see though your disguise

Wicked love, wicked love

With an evil walk and a magic talk She's got me by the balls, little girls got me hooked Can't break down the walls

Wicked love, wicked love

She's a dream turned nightmare
Everyone falls, she'll make ya feel your the only one

Don't take the bitch for granted, she's got everything ya need

When she's up and leavin' there's laughin' while ya bleed

Wicked love, wicked love

Gonna take all your money, shoot ya down in flames She'll be thinkin' it's funny, another sucker in her little game

Wicked love, wicked love

She's got class lot's of flash Everyone falls, she'll make ya feel you're the only one She's so bad, the fuckin' nag
