Thunderhead
"Young And Useless"

[Music: H. Wolter; Lyrics: T. Bullet]

I said I need ya and I'll never let you go
These times are changin' baby it always shows
Seems the more I know, the less I feel like a man
Don't ya come too close, can't ya understand

I'm young and useless
Killin' with style laughing all the while
Young and useless
Killin' with style (all the while)

Get out of my face, just stay out of my way
Only have to think once, pull the trigger twice
Not bad for a beginner, I'm such a wicked sinner
Just another way can I fake today

I'm young and useless
Killin' with style laughing all the while
Young and useless
Killin', killin'

I said I need ya and I'll never let you go
These times are changin' baby it always shows
Seems the more I know, the less I feel like a man
Don't ya come too close, can't ya understand

I'm young and useless (ya feel the same way too)
Killin' with style laughing all the while
Young and useless
Killin', killin' with style laughing all the while
Young and useless (get out of my way)
Young and useless
