Scream from land to the sea
A new day emerging from darkness
Creatures of the dark everywhere
Dark knight, warrior from hell

He's born in the fire
Enemy of light
With glory and sadness
He's riding the sky

A presence creepin' in the air
On times of spirit of darkness
Blood and fire in my veins
The dark knight casts his spell

He's born in the fire
Enemy of light
With glory and sadness
He's riding the sky

Can't you see, he can shattering your life
With his sword of eternal time
Running fast, shadow of death line
Wicked eyes u cannot hide

He's born in the fire
Enemy of light
With glory and sadness
He's riding the sky
