"Fading Dreams"

Visit "Fading Dreams" on MotoLyrics.com

Sitting here by your side in this old room

Thinking of the lives and time we left behind

As you promised me to stay here by my side

Little did I know how hard this ought to be

All those dreams fade away now

Now is the time to say goodbye

Will I ever see your sparkling eyes again

Now is the time to leave the past

Still I can't believe the pain that's striking me

Hold my hand,

Help me stand

Help me through this life
