

Thy Antichrist "Over The Humanity In Ruins"

Under a made old sky of dead stars
The winds of horror run the sphere
Are nefarious zephyres of the death that charges in it's wings
All the hate and wrath of the man...

In a sheet lightning like fire tribulation a nuclear blast
Razes the earth and a dense lethal smoke darken
The blue-eyed firmament...

The reddish sun has dark forever
And the moon bleeds without it's gleam
'Cause one more day no longer borns...

Over the humanity in ruins are rising
The gods tombs that never existed
And they buried man in the most bottomless of the abysses...

Over the humanity in ruins are rising
Tombs with obscene epitaphs
Over the human creation made ashes in it's auto-destruction.
