There's a light beam
Coming from the chimney
And the chimney sweep said that
You were the one that I always wanted
And how could I forget that?

There's a symphony
Coming down the railway
And it seems to be moving
Quite slowly.

Victory, will you sing a song for me?
Cause I've been waiting far too long to be with you
Rollercoaster
Of a frequented memory
But I'm sure
I'm over that now

Victory, will you sing a song for me?
Cause I've been waiting far too long to be with you

Victory, can you sing a song for me?
Cause I've been waiting far too long to be with you
