Emotions fall different
In front of the great darkness shaped around them
What's the existence in the spiritual cosmos
The existence in the material universe
Immortal elements, in hidden secrecy Transcendent, beyond the conceptual ability of mankind
Evilness will bring forth the dark age

Emotions fall different
In elements of another cosmos to come
Opening the dark age
For forthcoming centuries
Dead souls speech will appear
From the silent harborages of their graves
As they all, fall different
The utter of evil will hit thou as it will hit the earth
Emotions fall different in the spiritual cosmos
The dark age will hit the material universe in time
Of grief and in time of grace

Emotions fall different
Transcendent, beyond the conceptual ability of
mankind
In elements, of another cosmos to come... different they fall
