"Cast The Crown"

Seven lamps of fire
A sea of glass
Last is first
First shall be last

The beasts full of eyes
Before and behind
Give glory
All throughout time

Visions of lightening
With thunder divine
The trumpet
Signals the time

Alpha Omega
Has the end begun
Was and is
And is to come

Who is worthy to open the book
By blood, by word

We will be the ones who give our lives
We've learned to see and cast our crowns aside

Unlocking knowledge
To channel new hope
In your mind
And in your soul

There are yet more
Who will suffer and die
Judgement will
Not be denied

So will you be one who will give your life
Now will you see and cast your crown aside
