

Thy Serpent "Deathbearer"

Visit "Deathbearer" on MotoLyrics.com

The first rays of morning come
Again I'm stuck in front of the window
Everything is disconsolate, grey
Nothing to heal my wounds today

Still I think of moments past
Recall the dead and the living
So many death's agonies
It tears me away from this life

A twisted mind kills from the inside
I've been made into the deathbearer
It persecuted and crushed the mind
Thoughts distorted eternally

I no longer feel the fear of death
It is life that deprives everything
Where have you all gone?
All that lies under the soil is just a shell

The sun sets into the horizon
Again night conquers day
Again I can forget
Sleep kills the pain of life...

...tomorrow I awake no more
