Speaking in tongues with new language of insurrection Challenging an order careless with waste and consumption

A call to heal the ones infected with fear and silence
And the ones who have learned myths of redemptive violence

New World Idolatry - New World Extinction
A Human Sacrifice
On Alters Of Oppression
The Life Force Crushed Beneath
The Wheels Of Their Progression

The poor are enslaved while theocapitalists enthrall
The corporate control responsible for the downfall Benevolence must rise from ruins of misanthropy Benevolence rises from the ruins of misanthropy

An entire nation built upon the backbone of the blood and the sweat
Of the working class every single day. My job does not define me
