Phoenix rising from the ashes
To make change with conviction
We are standing on the one truth
We will stand firm never removed

Advocate taking stance to remind us
Of that which we have forgotten
We must repair these ravages of mindlessness

Temple growing temple moving
From conception to extinction
Deep within us there's a passion
To enlighten all the children

Sell your riches and possessions
Our salvation our new movement
Love will sustain love will refrain
On our lips to bless and overcome

These impurities that infect this land
Will not remove me from where I stand
