

Thy Serpent "Voices Divide"

Visit "Voices Divide" on MotoLyrics.com

This is a call to the few
Who continue to seek to Listen for the voice of the Still speaking

Our Life
This is a call for change
Our voice
Voice divides the flame

We must liberate the poor
Set free the marginalized
Heal the harassed and hopeless
Empathize

Truth and light yet to Break through the surface

The harvest plentiful
The laborers are few

We must heal the broken
One heart at a time

Never to exclude question
Or exploration in this
Mission to learn compassion
In our lives
