

Thy Will Be Done "Selfless Portrait"

Visit "Selfless Portrait" on MotoLyrics.com

This enlightenment
Paints a portrait of myself
Majesty surrounding me
Thoughts that fill my life

I will remain always myself
I am not one - I and I return
Time will reveal truth that's inside
I reach beyond - got to find myself

Give all from my heart
With no regard for reward
I will strive to unify

Never to divide

I'm selfless
Selfless

Guide what's in my head
Manifest what's in my soul
Babylon will not break
All that I create

To embrace this world around
There's nothing left of it
Nothing is sacred
There's no more effect
No more love it's all gone
