In the dark, in my pain
I cry with myself and hope to die

The voice,
The voice of death allures me,
To the unknown,
To eternal life in pain

In the dark light
I see those demons on my path
I bleed to death

In the sky
It's only dark
I long to come

The voice,
The voice of death allures me,
To the unknown,
To eternal life in pain

When the blood runs
My life fades away
I cry my unseen tears
In the dark
I see those demons
Take my soul

I'm being loved...
