Shivering black psychotic darkness
Lightning thrown into me
Ripping my skin,
I'm laying in a tomb and being shaken to pieces by my coffin
In my mind there is nothing
I have been awoken by thee,
What are thee...

I am lost...
In my mind
In this pain I am thee

You reach for your conquest
I see as I crawl in blood
You collector of souls
Have you reached your sacrifice?

Now, join me in my shadows

In darkness we unite...
In shadows we come...
And blood we hunt eternally
