"In A Dark Dream"

Visit "In A Dark Dream" on MotoLyrics.com

A voice fading inside a dream within me
My soul screams I see your eyes
Swept in flames within our nocturnal games

The malicious black horned knight
Blessed and swept by the night

Inhale my blood and die with me...
In the dark side of dreams

The crystal beams of stars so bright
Embrace the naked princess of night
I turn away, she hurts my eyes
A distant scream, in blood she dies

A shadow rises across the moon
Blackened like a fist of doom
A shadow feeds inside of you
I am awakened, death to you
