"Shining Serpent"

Welcome to the suffering, timeless and lifeless
Lead by the serpent, into the garden
Creator of lies, two tongued father
Devastator of sin, lead and be led by the shining serpent

Space torn asunder...
Executor of existence...
Guide to death...

Stare into these eyes, a soulless revelation
No daemon nor a beast pure at spirit
Not a vision from the future or the past
This is endless...
Strangulated and dead...
Lifeless and painless the shining serpent

Space torn asunder...
Executor of existence...
Guide to death...
