I've been thinking about the shit we've said
To get inside each other's head
A fucked up game never turns out right,
But we're always back for more

Look inside, you'll realize
That there's a lot of heart this home denies
It's a fucked up place that never feels right,
But we're always back for more

We struggle, but we go
With everything we know
We've got to take our time to figure out
What's in store!

How did we get this far?
What will it take to make it back
To the people that we used to be?
I'd give anything for what we used to be
But no...
You never cared about anything than what you stood to gain
And now we all know better than you!

Talk is fucking cheap
Your actions were a dollar less... fuck you!
It never mattered about how much you gave!
You think you've got life figured out
But it will chew you up and spit you out
And now we all know better than you!

You don't know much of what you had (you had),
Or what it's worth!
You don't know much of what you had (you had),
Or what it's worth!
Get low!

You don't know much of what you had (you had),
Or what it's worth!
