You only take heed when you need to
You only take heed when you need to
And you need to

Come let me brief you
Let you see where greed leads to
And you need to

Inspire the love inside your people
Our people, equal
Hurting for all those lethals, no spires
No more hellfires and please no more gunfire

Quench with people then thirst
Put them first
And when the floodgates burst
Come inside and we'll keep you strong

We protect the children of this new dawn
We're properly skilled and we fear no storm
And what we're building will persevere long
After the wicked 'em disappear

Justice, truth and rights gone clear
Me and the youth, we have a start this year
Me and the youth, we have a start this year
