I had so much to prove but you gave up on me so fast.
And now that I've lost you,
I fall asleep with a memory.
For I dream just to see you,
there's nothing more I can do...

My soul yearns for slumber,
cause when I wake up
we haven't got love.
My heart burns for your comfort
so I dream tonight,
I'm coming home, to you!

Awake in this world
Lettin' all the future I've planned Comin' her world
That sleep is my last remedy
For I dream just to see you (ooh)
There's nothing more I can do...

My soul yearns for slumber,
cause when I wake up
we haven't got love.
My heart burns for your comfort
so I dream tonight,
I'm coming home, to you!

My soul yearns for slumber,
cause when I wake up
we haven't got love.
My heart burns for your comfort
so I dream tonight,
I'm coming home, I'm coming home
