Music by kim bullard/amy sky/marc jordan

Lyrics by dave taggart

Verse 1

Male: I picked a rose among these ancient walls

A garden made for love

But nothing grows at all

I heard your laughter and I almost knew

That we'd share our life together

Female: and still surrounded by this fortress strong

Kept from your loving arms too long

Chorus

Both: if we just close our eyes and begin a new day

We could turn back the time to a world far away

Where our hearts beat as one through the passing of ages

Male: oh, we could turn back time start a brand new day

Female: if we just close our eyes

Verse 2

Male: I saw you walking with the sacred fire

A girl her eyes so wild with anger and confusion

The only spark of life to grace this land

Both: we shared this hope eternal (male whisper: eternal)

Female: and now it seems as though you've found your place

(male: found your place)

Lost my loving embrace

Chorus

Bridge

Male: I'll give more than forever

Female: our love will carry us away

Both: together we'll fly if we just close our eyes

Chorus

Repeat first 2 lines of chorus, with improvisation
