It's the age of the lie
A time when most relations can't relate
Everybody's building walls
To help their heart to face another break
But you and I found another way

When you're here with me
It's so plain to see
There are no cares that be
We cannot undo
In these hardest times
In this age of lies
In this heart of mine
I know we're the truth
I know we're the truth

In a world of doubt
I know it's how much you believe in me
A simple kind of trust
From the heart the way that trust should be
A love like yours is easy to believe

When you're here with me

It's so plain to see
There are no cares that be
We cannot undo
In these hardest times
In this age of lies
In this heart of mine
I know we're the truth
I know we're the truth

Love is why I first believed in you
Love is still the reason that remains

When you're here with me
It's so plain to see
There are no cares that be
We cannot undo

In these hardest times
In this age of lies
In this heart of mine
I know we're the truth
I know we're the truth
