Even stobe, a pulse of flashing hatelights
Of synthetic souls, mass produced
Hammered into shape

A sign of times
Dreams turn into systems
A new way, a new breed
Implanted in our minds

Here I am in the hand of the sterile hate
The new control I can not wake I'm not asleep

New intelligence arise in emptied bodies
Turgid flesh, tested through eternal spastic
Through not known codes, mother machine
Genocide, now scorn dying race

Evolution in reverse
Now it's time for me
Changing, what am I to be
Contorted and an eternity defeated

Programmed to appease you
We're symbols of perfection
Humanoids runned by your laws
Destroy, erase, improve

Lesson first, submission
We're docile servant dogs
Our leashes are your limbs
Computed deep within

Remoted minds, controlled our thoughts
No more doubts, the new way is here, disgorged
Another thousands fakes that obey
To a circuit skein to vacuum

Mechanical thoughts, I now concieve
No longer me, always to see inanity
Millions to be, units like me
Eternally human patterns

Copied, dissected, distorted
Completed to fit the machine
The nerve fibres give in to cords
To the unknown

See me, be me, same contents, same machine
The currency of ours, no more flesh and bone
We are to be unaware of what we have been before

Evolution in reverse
Now it's time for me
Changing, what am I to be
Contorted, an eternity
Defeated by humanity
