I don't have a love for money
Try to find richness in my soul
I've had my share of pain and pleasure
Happiness I swear you stole

Run away and hide
In who can we confide
All wolves in sheeps clothing
They never are what they seem

No matter how I try to please you
You try to break me mentally
Reconciliation passed me by
Nothing like hanging from the family tree

Run away and hide
On the wildest ride
Burning deep inside
Everybody lied

We are surrounded by the sinners and the saints
Nobody really knowing who's who
Someone to love and then twist into hate
And then you're begging for food

Run away and hide
On the wildest ride
Burning deep inside
Everybody lied

I don't believe in second chances everytime
Don't wanna live in denial
Still I keep searching for the reason and the rhyme
Someday we'll all be on trial

Run away and hide
On the wildest ride
Burning deep inside
Everybody lied
