It starts in the afternoon after we've downed a few
We argue for an hour then soak for two
You ask me about the future and what I think it'll bring Oh I freeze up and can't think of a single thing

Is this the life you wanna live
Oh I've given you all that I possibly can give
I wonder why the hell you're still here with me
Oh this isn't how I wanted things to be
Oh to be

You ramble on 'bout the way that I make you feel Nothing I say, nothing I do is real
Let's hope by tomorrow all memories of this are gone
Oh I guess all you needed was someone you could lean on

Oh is this the life you wanna live
I've given you all that I possibly can give
I wonder why the hell you're still here with me
Oh this isn't how I wanted things to be
Oh to be
