Breathe in, tell your children

They will be safe from harm

Breathe out

Tell yourself

There's no reason for alarm

The more you give

The less you have to carry

The more you lead

The less you have to follow

The more you give

The less you have to carry

The more you lead

The less you have to follow

The more you give

The less you have to carry

The more you lead

The less you have to follow
