(The_mad_Marquise/Thunderstorm)
I thought I lived in the worst of pains
I thought it never could become worse
I thought my self pity was at it's peak
BUT OH HOW WRONG I WAS
My candles were burning from both ends
Yet I couldn't see any light
My life is burned from both ends
AND NOW THERE'S JUST MY BODY LEFT TO BURN
When obscurity became darkness
All colors turned in to different shades of black
When obscurity became darkness
I COME TO MISS MY DISMAL PAST
Darkness, darkness everywhere
Darkness, darkness and there's just my body left to burn
Darkness, darkness, obscurity has become darkness
In darkness shall we burn, you and me
In darkness, for an eternity
From worst and beyond
From worst and beyond
