I'll be honest I'll be true, chase fast after you,
I will ask you how you feel and i will be real,
I wont lie, I will try to comply.

So forget what it is you see,
Go on then just lie to me,
Coz you don't want a real boy we both know,
And he'll lie to you that Pinocchio.

I am your friend not your foe, follow where you go,
When you turn round I'll be there through high and low,
I wont lie, I will try to comply.

So forget what it is you see,
Go on then just lie to me,
Coz you don't want a real boy we both know,
And he'll lie to you that Pinocchio.

So forget what it is you see,
Go on then just lie to me,
Coz I don't want a real boy we both know,
Lie to me Pinocchio.

So forget what it is you see,
Go on then just lie to me,
Coz you don't want a real boy we both know,
And he'll lie to you that Pinocchio.

So forget what it is you see,
Go on then just lie to me,
Coz you don't want a real boy we both know,
And he'll lie to you that Pinocchio.
He'll lie to you that Pinocchio.
